Hi Sriram,

Thank you for applying for the position Full Stack Developer.
Congratulations on successfully passing our initial screening!

As the next step in our hiring process, we kindly ask you to complete the following assessment. Please see attached document with instructions below.

Necessary resources are attached below along with this link: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=whxe41XYXS8

Upon completion of the assessment, please attach the links of the GitHub code, hosted version and loom video and upload it to the question in this message.

Please spend no more than 4 days and no more than 16 work hours on this assessment.

$150 bonus will be awarded only upon successful completion of the coding assessment.
